UNCLE SAM AND GREATER AMERICA REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The Republicans of Kentucky, in Convention assembled, make the following declarations of purposes and principles:

First—We affirm that the existing Election Law in Kentucky, enacted by a Democratic General Assembly in 1886 over the objection of our Republican Governor, is viciously partisan, subversive of fairness and honesty in elections, hostile to the principles of free government, removes safeguards which have heretofore protected and guaranteed the right of suffrage, denies to our Courts the power to protect voters in this state against the perpetration of fraud at elections, commits broad power to irresponsible Commissioners not chosen by or accountable to the people for their acts and impairs the sacredness, efficiency and power of the ballot. We therefore set forth as the supreme issue before the people of this state the repeal of this revolutionary law, and the Republican party pledges itself to its repeal and to the restoration of the system under which free and fair elections have heretofore been the rule in Kentucky. We appeal to the freedom of the Commonwealth who value official honesty and fair elections above the temporary success of party to join with us in the re-establishment of free suffrage and local self-government.

Second—We most heartily approve the Administration of Governor W. B. Bradley. As an Executive he has been faithful in maintaining law and order, in securing protection to person and property and diligent and forceful in enforcing legislation and in preventing, as far as possible by the veto power, the enactment of legislation harmful to the highest interests of this Commonwealth. We heartily commend the conduct and official work of our other state officers elected in 1905. This first Republican Administration in Kentucky has faithfully executed the laws and energetically collected the revenues and honestly disbursed them. The Republicans of Kentucky go before the people in 1906 asking continuance of power upon the record made since 1905 in every department of state Administration. We cite the Election Law, the Penitentiary Bill, the McChord Railroad Bill and many other measures introduced and attempted to be passed by which the people of the state will be subjected should the Democratic party come into power under its present leadership, legislation alike hostile to political honesty and purity and to the material prosperity and advance of our Commonwealth.

Third—We commend the Republicans of Kentucky that they have a representative in the Upper House of Congress. We cordially approve the conduct of Senator W. J. Deane and of the Republican members from Kentucky in the Lower House. Fourth—We pledge the Republican party of Kentucky to the enactment of all such laws as may be necessary to prevent trusts, pools, combinations or other organizations from combining to depress below its real value any article, or to enhance the cost of any article, or to reduce the proper emoluments of labor. We congratulate the Republican party that existing Federal legislation for the suppression of harmful trusts, pools and combinations is the work of a Republican Congress performed during the Administration of a Republican President, and we congratulate the country that in the suppression of injurious combinations Republican legislation has had in the past and it will have in the future due regard for the interests of legitimate business, the purposes of such legislation being the remedy for fraud, and not an embarrassment to industry, enterprise or thrift.

Fifth—We believe in popular education and the fostering and improvement of our Public School System. We favor a just and equitable law by which the cost of books shall be reduced to the lowest price consistent with due regard for their merit. But we oppose to the School Book Law passed last year by the Lower House of the Legislature, because under its provisions desired relief will not be secured by a more complete monopoly of established.

Sixth—In furtherance of the material welfare of the state and of satisfactory relations between labor and capital we favor the establishment of a State Board of Arbitration and its endowment with such power for the settlement of differences between these important elements in commerce and manufacture as has been demonstrated by the experience of other states to be wise.

Seventh—We favor the adoption of a liberal and progressive policy affecting the care of local highways, and declare good roads to be essential to any intelligent effort to be made for the improvement of business conditions in this state.

Eighth—We endorse without reserve the Administration of President McKinley, and congratulate the American people upon conditions of prosperity and happiness resulting from the restoration of order and the establishment of a Government in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines, and we pledge him our continued support until the peace of the world is secured. Ninth—We reaffirm our adherence to the principles and policies proclaimed by the last National Republican Convention, excepting those declarations as to Civil Service. We regard it as settled beyond dispute that the maintenance of a sound currency through Republican Administration and legislation is the foundation upon which rests the most remarkable period of industrial progress, commercial activity and general prosperity within the experience of the people of the United States. We commend the recent amendment of the Civil Service Rules by the President, and declare our belief that further modification of existing Civil Service legislation may be made with advantage to the public service.

The resignation of General ALGER and the induction of Secretary Root into the War Department has revived the controversy concerning the relations of General NELSON A. MILES to the Secretary of War.

In this connection it may be well to say that General MILES will continue to carry out his functions as Commanding General of the Army just the same as he did under Secretary ALGER. To be sure, these functions are somewhat indefinite and have always been because the regulations are not very explicit as to exactly what are the duties of the Commanding General. He has the direction of the Army, looking after its comfort and the detailing of the Regiments. It is his duty to see that the soldiers are well cared for, fed and clothed, and when an officer wants a transfer or leave of absence the Commanding General can give it to him up to a certain length of time. The Commanding General recommends, but he does not order.

Therefore, it is rather foolish in his misguided friends to insist that General MILES should be given the powers vested in the Secretary of War.

There cannot be two heads to a Department, and the law has provided that the Secretary of War shall be the head of the War Department and not the Commanding General. Even if General MILES's friends do desire it, it is not likely that Secretary Root is going to divide his power and delegate part or any of it to General MILES. There will be very little occasion for Mr. Root to change the existing order of the Department, but he will allow, as every Secretary of War should, General MILES to perform the duties laid down for the Commanding General of the Army according to the rules, regulations and law.

The C. and O. will build a hospital at Huntington for the benefit of the employees of the road.

MILITARY TRAINING FOR BOYS. Kentucky is Justly Proud of Hoggsett Military Academy.

Kentucky should pride itself on the fact that there is within its borders a school of the highest standing for training, developing and preparing boys for life, work and for college. The want of such a school has long been felt, but Hoggsett Military Academy of Danville, Kentucky, has met the demand. For some years a large local school, it was several years ago converted into a Day and Boarding School with the military feature and is today doing work surpassed by no school in the East, the North or the South. It is splendidly equipped and most desirably located. Its teachers are men of experience. At the head of the school is Prof. Charles M. Neel, the distinguished educator and the Superintendent formerly of the Georgia Military Institute. All true Kentuckians should patronize this institution if they want their sons educated in the highest meaning of that word—the body, the mind, the character—the whole boy. Its reputation has already spread over the South and Central States, and many from without Kentucky are sending their sons there to be educated.

Herbivore is well adapted to the cure of fevers of all kinds, because it thoroughly cleanses the stomach and bowels of all bilious humors and expels all impure secretions of the body. Price 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

ELECTRIC PARK.

All This Week the Murray-Hartt Comedy Co. Will Hold Forth.

That the jolly comedies produced by the Murray-Hartt Co. at the Park theater this week has struck the keynote in the eyes of the people, is evidenced by the increasing attendance and interest manifested.

A crowd of larger dimensions greeted the performers last night in "My Uncle From Japan" than was out on the opening night, and this week's business bids fair to be phenomenal.

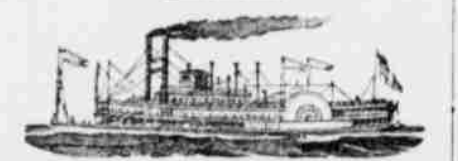

A change in the bill occurs tonight and they will produce the funny three-act comedy, "A Woman Hater," which is a satire on mercenary marriages and is even better than "My Uncle From Japan."

You are surprised at the management being able to produce such a good thing for so small an amount of money. Well you go out tonight and see the big crowds and you will readily see that the increased attendance is the secret of it all.

In addition to the program the Maysville Orchestra will render a delightful concert before the performance and between the acts. The concert begins at 8:15, so go out and be in time to enjoy this musical treat as well as the comedy treat that follows.

Secure your reserved chairs in advance at Nelson's. Fifteen cents pays admission and round trip car fare.

FLOTSAM—JETSAM—LIGAN! NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Sunshine was up last night for Pomeroy.

The City of Pittsburgh will put in new boilers.

The Lizzie Bay will pass down from Pomeroy tonight.

The Avalon will pass up tomorrow evening for Kanawha river.

There is a steady decline in the Ohio, Pittsburgh reporting only 3 feet.

Captain John F. Klein of Pittsburgh sold the towboat Dauntless to the Mononahela Towing Company of Pittsburgh. The machinery of the Dauntless will be transferred to the Advance, being built at Middletown.

On the 30th of this month there is to be a Wood family reunion at Pittsburgh, with Captain William Wood, the senior in the chair, surrounded by the junior Woods, all of whom are encircled with a mixed wreath of river water and coal.

The City of Vevey is still resting placidly on the bottom of the river at Gladys, O., the water being over her main deck. It is doubtful about her ever being afloat again. She is used as a boarding house, and has beer signs tacked up all over her.

The United States dredgeboats have finished their work at Bonanza bar and have returned to Cincinnati. They made two cutouts her over being almost navigation during the extremely low water season which will be due in a short time.

At the meeting of the Ohio River Pilots of Pittsburgh a resolution was passed requesting all Masters and Pilots hired by the year to resign their position October 1. This is requested for the reason that it will make the demands of the Pilots and Masters for higher wages more effective.
